

Scioperi: Cub Trasporti, 4 ore l'8 giugno in Alitalia e Ita globalhappenings.com/opinion/190542.html

Martin

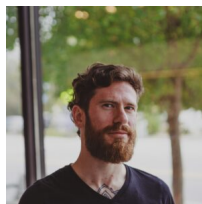

(ANSA) – MILAN, MAY 27 – Cub Trasporti has called a four-hour strike, from 1pm to 5pm, on Wednesday 8 June by the land workers of Alitalia-Sai, which is in receivership, and of Ita. The protest is due to the opposition to the “Alitalia stew which – according to what has been stated – is causing significant reductions in handling personnel in Rome and Milan and in maintenance employees in the capital”.

“We are against the dismemberment of Alitalia and the privatization of Ita which is the tombstone on the project to relaunch a flag company – says Antonio Amoroso, national secretary of Cub-Trasporti. In Fiumicino, in particular, Swissport, the company that having won the tender called by Alitalia for the sale of ground services, he says he wants to hire only 1,451 people, or a thousand fewer than the current workers “.

An assembly is scheduled for 8 June in Fiumicino, at Terminal T1 in which it will be decided how to “counteract employment cuts and regulatory worsening”. (HANDLE).

Source: Ansa

Martin

I have been working in the news industry for over 10 years now and I have worked for some of the biggest news websites in the world. My focus has always been on entertainment news, but I also cover a range of other topics. I am currently an author at Global happenings and I love writing about all things pop-culture related.